

A real alternative to traditional aged care

Now there's a new and proven aged care alternative that lets you fulfill your aspirations: Sunrise Supported Living. It's neither a Nursing Home nor is it a Retirement Village. It's an altogether new concept in aged care and support.

The Sunrise concept is quite simple. Residents can purchase and live in their own home where personal choice, dignity, privacy and individuality are enjoyed, valued and encouraged. Perhaps best of all, professional care and support are never more than a push button away.
